

Feudi di San Gregorio 'Albente', Campania, Falanghina 2018

Peach and apricot flavours with floral and vanilla hints through to a lively and zesty finish.

Producer Note

One of the main protagonists in the renaissance of Southern Italian wines, Feudi di San Gregorio has carved out a reputation for making truly world-class wines in less than 30 years. The company began in the mid 1980s with the aim of safeguarding local traditions and unlocking the potential of key indigenous grapes such as Fiano, Greco, Falanghina and Aglianico.

Vintage

The climate was stable in 2018 and water reserves from winter snowfall nourished the vines throughout the warm growth period. Good diurnal temperature differences were noted, which helped to build flavour concentration and balancing acidity in the fruit. The whites were harvested in mid September in order to preserve the acidity, with excellent results. The reds were harvested slightly later and show fresh, vibrant wines. Overall 2018 is considered to be a good vintage.

Vineyard

---

The beautiful Feudi di San Gregorio vineyards are spread out over lush and gentle hills in Sorbo Serpico, about an hour from Naples and Mount Vesuvius. The soils are uniquely volcanic, sandstone and marl. Each vineyard is closely monitored with a meteorological station, and the technologies of the new state-of-the-art wine cellar ensures that each vintage comes as close to perfection as possible.

Winemaking

The grapes were fermented in stainless steel tanks at 16 to 18°C to preserve the fruity aromatics and freshness. The wine was then matured for a period of four months in tank, prior to being bottled.

Tasting Note

---

Fresh and intense on the nose showcasing aromas of stoned fruit and white flowers. On the palate, this wine is vibrant and soft in expression with stoned fruit and floral notes on the finish.
